

COTTON ROOT ROT TURN-ROW MEETING

DATE: October 12, 2010

LOCATION: TYN DAVID'S FARM
Approximately a mile west of Fort Hancock on Alameda-TX 20
West from Miller Brother's Farm. See map on back page

TIME: 9:00 AM. – 10:00 AM.

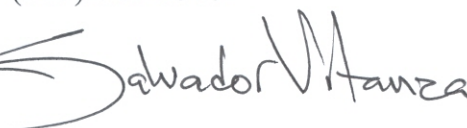

KEY SPEAKER: Thomas Isakeit, Ph.D.
Texas A&M – Texas AgriLife
Department of Plant Pathology and Microbiology
Professor & Extension Specialist, Field Crops

COST: FREE

TOPICS:

- Identification, distribution, biology, and damage of Texas Cotton Root Rot or Phymatotrichopsis root rot (PRR).
- Symptomatic differences between PRR, Verticillium wilt and other cotton diseases.
- Results of 2008 and 2009 PRR field trials in San Angelo, TX.
- Preliminary results of 2010 PRR field trials in San Angelo.
- Future field research in El Paso/Hudspeth Counties.

Two CEUs may be obtained for agricultural commercial and non-commercial pesticide applicators. For general information, please call Texas AgriLife Extension Service at (915) 860-2515

Salvador Vitanza

Salvador Vitanza, Ph.D.
Extension Agent – IPM

PLEASE SEE MAP ON BACK PAGE

